MEMO ENDORSED

Re: Mauro v. Sterling National Bank, et al.
Index No.: 08 CV 2151 (SCR) (MDF)

Dear Judge Robinson:

I represent the defendants in the above-referenced action. I with the consent of all parties to respectfully request a one week adjournment of the briefing schedule on plaintiff's motion to remand this action to the Supreme Court of the State of New York. Defendants' opposition papers are currently due today, with plaintiff's reply due on May 2, 2008, and the motion scheduled for oral argument on May 27, 2008. Defendants do not seek to adjourn the date for oral argument of the motion. The reason for this request is that the parties have reached a settlement in principal and are negotiating the final few terms of a comprehensive settlement agreement in this action (and two related actions). The parties expect to finalize a settlement agreement within the next couple of days and will advise the Court promptly. There was a prior application to adjourn this briefing schedule.

Respectfully,

Scott A. Ziluck (SZ-4826)

Defendants' opposition papers are due 5/2/08. Plaintiff's reply is due 5/9/08.
